

REVELATIONAL INSIGHT

"Nobody ever outgrows Scripture, the book widens and deepens with our years in the faith" – Charles Spurgeon

TESTIMONY

The God of wonders beyond the galaxies has proved Himself again as the great deliverer. Our beloved brother testified on how God supernaturally spared his life from what would have resulted to a massive stroke. He went to work on a normal day and as soon as he was done with his job, he bent down to pick up a pen that fell from his pocket, the unthinkable happened. Our brother slumped and could not get up. He received medical attention and the Doctor pronounced an evil report. But our brother testified that he confessed what the word of God said concerning his healing and the month of October being our month of Divine Healing, God came through for him. The God we serve indeed is the Great Physician! Glory to His Holy Name!

STATEMENT OF FAITH

That the Holy Bible is divinely inspired by God, and is infallible, trustworthy and dependable, and authoritative in all matters of faith and conduct.

That there is only one God, who is eternally existed in three distinct persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ our Lord is God manifested in the human flesh to take away our sins and hopelessness by his voluntary suffering, death and physical resurrection.

That salvation of all humanity is only through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is our only Hope in the world of hopelessness.

That the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ to live a holy life, to witness about Christ to the lost and to be anointed to be victorious in every sphere of life.

That the church is made up of those who have genuinely accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

That healing of various kinds is integral part of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Water baptism and the Lords Supper are authentic ordinances of the church.

That there is Satan and its demonic co-workers, whose work is to thwart and frustrate the purpose of God on earth, but their final end is the hell fire.

That there shall be a bodily resurrection of the dead in Christ to heaven, and of the unrepentant sinners to hell fire.

That there will be visible imminent return of Jesus Christ to take home true believers in God.

4. In the name of Jesus Christ I command divine beauty for my ashes as God did for the three Hebrews in the fire (Daniel 3: 19-25)

5. Today I receive divine beauty for my ashes as God did for the dry bones in the valley of hopelessness (Ezekiel 37: 1-10)

6. In the name of Jesus Christ I command divine beauty for my ashes as God did for Joseph in Egypt (Genesis 41: 37-45)

7. Today I decree divine beauty for my ashes as God did for Job (Job 42: 10-17)

CONCLUSION

You have turned for me my mourning into dancing; You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness (Psalm 30: 11)

Pastor's Corner

I gracefully once more welcome you into the New Year 2020 and a New Decade of blessings and flourishing in every area of our life. This month of June is the Month of our Divine Beauty for My Ashes. The God of hope said, He will give His children divine beauty for their ashes of trials and afflictions. So let us get ready to trust God so as to get divine beauty for our ashes today. (Amen)

Trusting God's Timing

by Lynette Kittle

"But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison" - Genesis 40:14

Have you ever experienced feeling forgotten by someone who promised to keep in contact with you, or said they would recommend you for an opportunity, but then seemed to have disappeared and forgotten all about you?

Scripture tells us about the extraordinary life of Joseph, a man who understood what it meant to be forgotten by others. Sold into slavery by

JUNE

MONTH OF DIVINE BEAUTY FOR MY ASHES

Prophetic Focus

"To console those who mourn in Zion, To give them beauty for ashes, The oil of joy for mourning, The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they may be called trees of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified." (ISAIAH 61: 3) jealous brothers who truly did want to forget all about him, their actions led to Joseph's imprisonment.

While serving time with fellow inmates, Joseph interpreted a dream for the chief cupbearer who was also imprisoned at the time. Joseph asked to be remembered by him when he was released. But, following a quick release, this inmate forgot all about Joseph's assistance. Genesis 40:23 explains, "The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him."

So, was the cupbearer just a terrible person who purposely forgot Joseph? Was he a self-absorbed individual totally ungrateful for his help? Or, was his delay in remembering Joseph all in God's timing? It's a question we too may want to consider when it seems like we've been forgotten by someone we thought for sure would remember us.

Genesis 41:1-13, describes what followed. After two full years had passed, the chief cupbearer's boss, the Pharaoh, had a dream that he didn't understand. When all his advisors and consultants couldn't interpret the troubling dream for him, the chief cupbearer had an "aha" moment where he remembered Joseph.

This "aha" moment led to Joseph being called before

Pharaoh to interpret his dream, an act that led to his release from prison and being placed into a high position within the kingdom (Genesis 41:41).

Although forgotten throughout his life by others, God didn't ever forget Joseph, working through his life in remarkable ways (Acts 7:9-10).

Like Joseph, when we have felt forgotten by others, we can take comfort in knowing God remembers us. We can also trust God is at work in our lives, whether by way of those we are hoping will think of us, or through those who may surprise us.

I have a family member who was praying and asking God for a job, when friends who were thousands of miles away, ones he hadn't been in contact with for years, "just happened" to be looking through a box that brought him to mind.

In thinking of him, they had an "aha" moment, where they felt prompted to contact him in consideration for an upcoming opening at their organization. In calling to reconnect with him, they discovered he was looking for a job, which led to his being hired for the position.

So, whenever we're feeling forgotten by others, we can choose to trust God hasn't forgotten us. We can believe He has a plan for our lives and will bring us to the minds of those who know us, in His perfect timing and according to His will.

Who has God brought to your mind recently? Anyone you haven't thought about in years? Take time to consider why you're thinking of them, and ask God if He is prompting you to reach out to them.
