PASTOR'S CORNER

Welcome to the Month of March 2021: Our Month of Divine Blood Covenant of the Lamb (Revelation 12:11). Our world is ruled by covenants or agreements from the boardrooms to the bedrooms and from the classrooms to the office rooms and from the wall streets to the main streets and from the religious rooms to the secular rooms.

However, the Bible is the divine book of God's covenants to His chosen people but the ultimate is the New Covenant made by the precious blood of Jesus Christ on Cross of Calvary. This is our sure and eternal Covenant of salvation, healing, restoration, victory, blessings and eternal life. Now as we genuinely enter into this New Blood Covenant, I pray that every evil, occultic, witchcraft and demonic generational covenant limiting our destiny advancement is annulled and disabled today in the mighty Name of Jesus Christ and Shalom.

CONCLUSION

“The Covenant Blood of Jesus Christ is superior to man-made and devil-sponsored covenants.”

The word “phobia” comes from the Greek word for fear, phobos. One of my college psychology professors explained a phobia as an irrational fear of something that can potentially be harmful. Arachnophobia, the fear of spiders, for example, is an abnormal fear of spiders. Spider bites can be deadly, but most spiders are harmless and if a person gets bit by one, the chances of it being a lethal bite are minimal

Still, a person who suffers from this phobia, like me, can't be told to “not worry” when they see one of those eight-legged monsters. When I see a spider, the blood drains from my face, I can't move... actually, all I can do is scream until someone comes to rescue me. I'm not kidding. I, a grown adult, have been known to stand on top of a table and scream until my mother, yes, my mother, comes and gets rid of the disgusting arachnid.

I am very, very, very afraid of spiders... but truthfully, my phobia issues don't end there. Everyone has their “issue.” My issue, my vice, my weakness, and my greatest struggle, can all be summed up in one word: “fear.” Out of curiosity, I recently decided to see if there

Worry-Phobia

By Meghan Kleppinger

For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, “Abba! Father!” - Romans 8:15 was a phobia for a generalized fear of everything. There is. It's called panphobia (or pantaphobia), and is simply defined as a fear of everything.

As I researched panphobia, I learned that this is more than the every day worrywart sort of fear. It's a medical condition that is persistent, debilitating, and very difficult to treat. It's related to the paranoia typically found in Schizophrenics. After discovering this, I quickly decided that I don't have panphobia

I realized that I'm not necessarily afraid of everything, I just worry about everything – and in case you're wondering, the definition for the Greek word for worry (merimnao) has more to do with an anxious concern than a debilitating fear.

I'm one of those people who worry even more if there isn't anything to worry about. I guess that would be called something like “Worry-phobia” – a fear of having nothing to worry about. Yes, I worry about those people I love, but I also worry about the starving parentless children on other side of the globe that I will never meet. I get worried when it rains one day too many or if too many days pass without a drop.

Okay, I'm exaggerating... a bit, but you get my point. The thing is God doesn't call worry panphobia or worry-phobia, He calls it sin. For me it is about control, and when I don't feel like I have control, I worry. It is certainly something God is continually and persistently working on in my life. He has been teaching me to trust Him through some painful and scary circumstances lately.

I know I'm not alone in the journey toward freedom from worry, so I'm going to share some helpful scripture with you. The following verses declare that His truth is greater than any worse-case-scenario or real-life-circumstance we can encounter.

“Do not be afraid of them; the LORD your God himself will fight for you.” (Deuteronomy 3:22) “The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.” (Deuteronomy 31:8)

“Are not two sparrows sold for a cent? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.” (Matthew 10:29-31) “Your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.” (Matthew 6:8b) “Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?” (Hebrews 13:6b) “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades.” (Revelation 1: 17b, 18)

“Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades.”
(Revelation 1: 17b, 18)

REVELATIONAL INSIGHTS

You cannot go back to your old life. There is nothing there but bondage. Your hope lies in following the Lord by faith and obedience.

Testimony

The God of wonders beyond the galaxies has proved Himself again as the great deliverer. Our beloved brother testified on how God supernaturally spared his life from what would have resulted to a massive stroke. He went to work on a normal day and as soon as he was done with his job, he bent down to pick up a pen that fell from his pocket, the unthinkable happened. Our brother slumped and could not get up. He received medical attention and the Doctor pronounced an evil report. But our brother testified that he confessed what the word of God said concerning his healing and the month of October being our month of Divine Healing, God came through for him. The God we serve indeed is the Great Physician! Glory to His Holy Name!

2021 WATCHWORD GOD'S YEAR FOR OUR DIVINE MAXIMUM SECURITY

"The Eternal God Is Our Refuge And Underneath Are The Everlasting Arms."

(Deuteronomy 33: 27)

STATEMENT OF FAITH

That the Holy Bible is divinely inspired by God, and is infallible, trustworthy and dependable, and authoritative in all matters of faith and conduct.

That there is only one God, who is eternally existed in three distinctive persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ our Lord is God manifested in the human flesh to take away our sins and hopelessness by his voluntary suffering, death and physical resurrection.

That salvation of all humanity is only through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is our only Hope in the world of hopelessness.

That the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ to live a holy life, to witness about Christ to the lost and to be anointed to be victorious in every sphere of life.

That the church is made up of those who have genuinely accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

That healing of various kinds is integral part of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Water baptism and the Lords Supper are authentic ordinances of the church.

That there is Satan and its demonic co-workers, whose work is to thwart and frustrate the purpose of God on earth, but their final end is the hell fire.

That there shall be a bodily resurrection of the dead in Christ to heaven, and of the unrepentant sinners to hell fire.

That there will be visible imminent return of Jesus Christ to take home true believers in God.
