Pastors Corner

I gladly welcome you into the month of December, which is the last month of our amazing year 2025. Indeed, our faithful God of Hope has done so much for us and we are forever grateful and graceful. Amazingly, this has been God's Year for our Divine Zeal for the Kingdom's assignments (Romans 12: 11). The final month is our season of Divine Hiding Place and God has promised to finish the year with us with His maximum protection and care such as He did for his saints of the past: The story has been told of a believer, Frederick Nolan, who was fleeing from his enemies during a time of persecution in North Africa. Pursued by them over hill and valley with no place to hide, he fell exhausted into a wayside cave, expecting his enemies to find him soon. Awaiting his death, he saw a spider weaving a web. Within minutes, the little bug had woven a beautiful web across the mouth of the cave. The pursuers arrived and wondered if Nolan was hiding there, but on seeing the unbroken and unmingled piece of art, thought it impossible for him to have entered the cave without dismantling the web. And so, they went on. Having escaped, Nolan burst out and exclaimed: "Where God is, a spider's web is like a wall, Where God is not, a wall is like a spider's web." Surely, our faith in Father God is our spacious and safest Hiding Place and nothing can touch us without passing through Him (Psalm 9: 9; 17:8; 27:5; 31:20; 64:2; 91:1; 119:114; 143:9). Now let us get ready to escape every remaining end of the year calamity and disaster in the mighty Name of Jesus Christ (Amen)

CONCLUSION

"Every Man's Need of a Refuge: Zephaniah's name means, "Jehovah hides." Many believe that Zephaniah was likely born during the reign of the wicked king Manasseh. We mentioned last week about the early start to the reign of the godly king Josiah at 8 years old. But Josiah's father, Manasseh, also had an early start as king at 12 year old. We find the account of Manasseh's leadership in 2 Chronicles 33:2-6."

OUR DIVINE HIDING PLACE

The noun sêter refers to places hidden from public view, whether literally, such as a ravine (1 Sam. 25:20), or the place among the lilies where Behemoth hides (Job 40:21), or more commonly metaphorically. God himself is hidden by thick clouds (Job 22:14) or darkness (Ps. 18:11) or in the place where thunder originates (Ps. 81:7). A hiding place can be either a positive or negative thing. Positively, God is often described as a secret place where his faithful are hidden and protected (Pss. 27:5; 31:20; 32:7; 61:4; 91:1; 119:114). Negatively, a secret place is often a place where people attempt to do things without God or others discovering what they are doing because they know it to be wrong. It is thus translated adverbially as “secretly.” One might secretly entice someone to worship other gods (Deut. 13:6), or commit adultery and murder (Deut. 27:24; 2 Sam. 12:12; Job 24:15; Prov. 9:17), or set up an idol (Deut. 27:15), or eat one’s dead children during a siege (Deut. 28:57), or show partiality in a court case (Job 13:10), or worship a heavenly body (Job 31:27), or slander one’s neighbor (Ps. 101:5; Prov. 25:23), or give a bribe (Prov. 21:14), or offer to assassinate an enemy (Jer. 40:15). Zedekiah “privately” promised to not kill Jeremiah (Jer. 38:16) when a public recognition would have been better. While there may be legitimate reasons to keep some things secret, hidden, or discreet (Judg. 3:19; 1 Sam. 19:2; Song 2:14; Jer. 37:17), some things should be publicly proclaimed and not hidden (Isa. 45:19; 48:16).

REVELATIONAL QUOTE

"No Real Life Without It: Life by its very definition is a growth process. That which is alive is growing. For example, seedlings grow to be trees, in some cases to heights of several hundred feet. Even when they reach their full height, they exhibit regular growth through the production of new leaves, branches, or fruit. The principle of growth also holds true in the spiritual realm. An essential, inherent characteristic for everyone in the Body of Christ is individual spiritual growth."

QUOTABLE QUOTE

God's promises of comfort are not just for reflecting upon, as though they were some mystical or philosophical thoughts on life, but for living in the world. They are associated with help and encouragement in times of stress, sorrow and difficulty, and show that God is deeply interested in all that goes on in our lives. Here are just some of the areas where God promises his comfort to us."

Statement of Faith

That the Holy Bible is divinely inspired by God, and is infallible, trustworthy and dependable, and authoritative in all matters of faith and conduct.

That there is only one God, who is eternally existed in three distinctive persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ our Lord is God manifested in the human flesh to take away our sins and hopelessness by his voluntary suffering, death and physical resurrection.

That salvation of all humanity is only through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is our only Hope in the world of hopelessness.

That the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ to live a holy life, to witness about Christ to the lost and to be anointed to be victorious in every sphere of life.

That the church is made up of those who have genuinely accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

That healing of various kinds is integral part of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Water baptism and the Lords Supper are authentic ordinances of the church.

That there is Satan and its demonic co- workers, whose work is to thwart and frustrate the purpose of God on earth, but their final end is the hell fire.

That there shall be a bodily resurrection of the dead in Christ to heaven, and of the unrepentant sinners to hell fire.
