MONTH OF DIVINE HUNGER AND THIRST

PROPHETIC FOCUS

"Ho! Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat. Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. why do you spend money for what is not bread, And your wages for what are not satisfying? Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good, And let your soul delight itself in abundance." (ISAIAH 55: 1-2)

1 Pastors Corner

PSALM 42: 1-3: As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.
My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?
My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say to me,
"Where is your God?"

I gladly welcome you afresh into the fifth month of the New Year 2026, which is our covenant Year of Divine Glorious light (PSALM 36: 9). The supernatural light of God will lighten every area of our destiny, and every darkness shall be subdued and conquered. Amazingly, this month of May is the prophetic month of Divine Hunger and Thirst (Isaiah 5: 1-2). Now it is time to get hungry and thirsty as a deer for dynamic intimacy with God in every area of our lives in the mighty Name of Jesus Christ (Amen)

MAY 2026

MONTHLY PROPHETIC PRAYER POWER-POINTS

- 1 I crave an unsatisfied thirst, "Whoever drinks of this water shall thirst again" (John 4:13).
- 2 I swim deeper into an unfathomable cry and groaning for the lost souls, "Jesus ... saith, I thirst" (John 19:28).
- 3 I receive an unspeakable gift, "Whosoever drinks of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst" (John 4:14).
- 4 I am swept into an unlimited supply, "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink" (John 7:37; Revelation 22:17).
- 5 I encounter afresh an unchanging blessing, "He that believeth on Me shall never thirst" (John 6:35).
- 6 I fully inherit an unquestionable promise, "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled" (Matthew 5:6).
- 7 I tap into a unique eternal life experience, "Hunger no more, neither thirst anymore" (Revelation 7:16).

CONCLUSION

"David's thirst for the water of the well of Bethlehem. It was something more than a thirst, a thirst within a thirst. So, it is too often in our spiritual life." (2 Samuel 23: 15-17)

Thirsting for God

Why does the hart (a male deer) pant after the water brooks? Why does not the hart go quietly and take its draught of limpid water? Why this panting, why this heart-beating, why this pulsing all over? See how the poor beast pants, quakes in distress! The little birds go and take their sip of dew with decent quietude; they make no stir or tumult. Why then should the hart pant? for the term is energetic, indicative of an excited state of blood. We need some other word here to explain the situation; put in the word "chased" or the word "hunted," and we have the idea:—As the hunted hart, the hart chased by hounds; as the hart flying from the enemy, more dead than living; as the overrun, overborne, imperiled hart pants and cries for the water brooks, so ... then we fill in our human experience; for if we are living any life at all we are hunted and chased, persecuted, threatened. If we are living quiet and unassailed lives, moving about at our own pace easily, depend upon it we are giving the enemy no distress; he is quite content to have it so, he knows that men in that condition cannot drink much water; they do not feel their need of it. It is hunted souls that pray, threatened, chased souls that cry out mightily for the living God. Until we are sensible of being hunted we cannot pray much. We can pray dimly, respectably, fluently, and in many huddled and incoherent sentences ask God to do something without ever caring to test the answer; but when the breath of the hound is upon our neck, when his very next spring will bring him upon us, and we shall be overthrown in a terrific confusion and fear, then we begin to pant for the living God. Away with your praying, and let us have panting, for your praying may be but a mechanical exercise, tribute paid to custom; but panting means prostration, earnestness, weakness of a kind which is the beginning of strength. How very much cool praying we have, and what very delicately calculated compliments have been paid by watching critics to that kind of praying,—so quiet, so restful, so measured, so easy altogether. Far too much so, ruinously so. Who shall take the kingdom by force? The violent. You do not want the water if you ask for it in that tame tone.

REVELATIONAL QUOTE

"No Real Life Without It: Life by its very definition is a growth process. That which is alive is growing. For example, seedlings grow to be trees, in some cases to heights of several hundred feet. Even when they reach their full height, they exhibit regular growth through the production of new leaves, branches, or fruit. The principle of growth also holds true in the spiritual realm. An essential, inherent characteristic for everyone in the Body of Christ is individual spiritual growth."

QUOTABLE QUOTE

My soul thirst for God, for the living God. Psalm 42:2
Earnestly I seek you; my soul thirst for you; Psalm 63:1
My soul thirst for you like a parched land. Psalm 143:6

Statement of Faith

That the Holy Bible is divinely inspired by God, and is infallible, trustworthy and dependable, and authoritative in all matters of faith and conduct.

That there is only one God, who is eternally existed in three distinctive persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ our Lord is God manifested in the human flesh to take away our sins and hopelessness by his voluntary suffering, death and physical resurrection.

That salvation of all humanity is only through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is our only Hope in the world of hopelessness.

That the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ to live a holy life, to witness about Christ to the lost and to be anointed to be victorious in every sphere of life.

That the church is made up of those who have genuinely accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

That healing of various kinds is integral part of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Water baptism and the Lords Supper are authentic ordinances of the church.

That there is Satan and its demonic co-workers, whose work is to thwart and frustrate the purpose of God on earth, but their final end is the hell fire.

That there shall be a bodily resurrection of the dead in Christ to heaven, and of the unrepentant sinners to hell fire.

Church Vision

To establish schools, hospitals, medical centers, and orphanage at home and abroad.
