MONTH OF DIVINE DESTINY PURPOSE

PROPHETIC FOCUS

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope." (JEREMIAH 29:11)

1 Pastors Corner

I gladly welcome you afresh into the 10th month, which is the month of our Divine Destiny Purpose. God has created every one of us for a purpose in life and whenever we are genuinely connected to God we will surely discover and fulfill our God-given destiny purpose. Yes, there will be challenges and trials and detours, but His grace is always sufficient for us to fulfill our assignments against all the odds of life.

GOD'S BIGGER PURPOSES: God has a purpose for our trials and challenges of life: Naturally, we take lessons before the exams but Spirituality, we take the tests before the lessons. That is why life's trials are often mysterious and difficult and if care is not taken, we may disobey God and crash under the pressures of life. But God's grace is sufficient for our mysterious challenges of life because He allows them to promote us and not to demote us at all and we must be careful of the devil who may turn the trials allowed by God to temptations to derail us

THIS IS GOOD

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.” (Romans 8:28)

A tribal king had a close friend with whom he grew up. The friend had a habit of looking at every situation that ever occurred in his life (positive or negative) as well as the lives of others and remarking, “This is good!” He based it on two scriptures; one that says that it is God’s will that we be thankful for ALL circumstances and Romans 8:28 which assures us that God can turn every situation (good or bad) into ultimate good. The king loved his friend’s positive outlook and took him with him wherever he went. One day the king and his friend were out on a hunting expedition. As the king fired his gun at a pheasant that flew up from the long grass, the rifle backfired and blew off his right thumb. Looking at the king’s bleeding hand; his friend remarked as usual, “This is good!” The king was angry and replied, “No, this is NOT good!” and proceeded to send his friend to jail for his insensitivity. About a year later, the king was hunting all alone in an area that he should have known to stay clear of. Cannibals captured him and took him to their village. They tied his hands, stacked some wood, and were going to cook him in a big pot. As they set fire to the wood, they noticed that the king was missing a thumb on his right hand. Being very superstitious, cannibals never eat anyone who is less than perfect. So releasing the king, they sent him on his way home. Walking home he kept staring at his right hand without a thumb. “This IS good!” he said out loud. He was reminded of the event that had taken his thumb and felt remorse for his shabby treatment of his friend. So he went immediately to jail to speak with his friend. “You were right,” he said, “it was good that my thumb was blown off.” And he proceeded to tell the friend all that had just happened. “And so, I am very sorry for sending you to jail for so long. It was bad for me to do this.” “No,” his friend replied as usual, “This is good!”

REVELATIONAL QUOTE

"No Real Life Without It: Life by its very definition is a growth process. That which is alive is growing. For example, seedlings grow to be trees, in some cases to heights of several hundred feet. Even when they reach their full height, they exhibit regular growth through the production of new leaves, branches, or fruit. The principle of growth also holds true in the spiritual realm. An essential, inherent characteristic for everyone in the Body of Christ is individual spiritual growth."

QUOTABLE QUOTE

"The great and glorious masterpiece of man is to know how to live to purpose." —

Michel de Montaigne, Essays

Statement of Faith

That the Holy Bible is divinely inspired by God, and is infallible, trustworthy and dependable, and authoritative in all matters of faith and conduct.

That there is only one God, who is eternally existed in three distinctive persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ our Lord is God manifested in the human flesh to take away our sins and hopelessness by his voluntary suffering, death and physical resurrection.

That salvation of all humanity is only through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is our only Hope in the world of hopelessness.

That the Holy Spirit indwells every believer in Christ to live a holy life, to witness about Christ to the lost and to be anointed to be victorious in every sphere of life.

That the church is made up of those who have genuinely accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

That healing of various kinds is integral part of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Water baptism and the Lords Supper are authentic ordinances of the church.

That there is Satan and its demonic co-workers, whose work is to thwart and frustrate the purpose of God on earth, but their final end is the hell fire.

That there shall be a bodily resurrection of the dead in Christ to heaven, and of the unrepentant sinners to hell fire.
